JANUARY/FEBRUARY

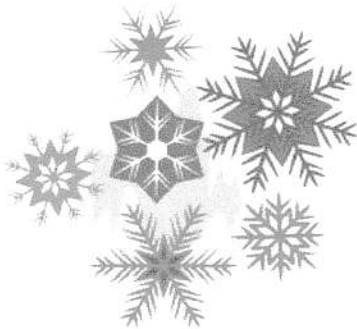

PASTOR'S CORNER

This Monday we are supposed to get our first snowfall of the year. Are you excited?

In his book, "Every Moment Holy", author Douglas McKelvey wrote this liturgy for the First Snow:

"O Christ, King of Snow, we bless You for bidding this blanket of white to cover us in holy hush, that our hearts might be quieted at the sight, that we might sense the emptiness of canvas over which Your Spirit broods, and upon which You would create and recreate our hearts in the image of the one whose word first spoke snow into existence. Amen."
